Thailand International Cooperation Agency (TICA), in cooperation with Puey Ungphakorn School of Development Studies, Thammasat University, will organize an international training course on “Moving toward SDG 2030 via Corporate Social Responsibility and Sufficiency Economy Philosophy” during 4-15 September 2017 in Thailand. Attending the course are participants from Bhutan, China, El Salvador, Fiji, Honduras, India, Indonesia, Kiribati, Kyrgyzstan, Mali, Moldovan, Myanmar, Nepal, Papua New Guinea, Peru, Sri Lanka, Suriname, Tunisia, Vietnam and Thailand. Organized under TICA’s Annual International Training Course or AITC framework, this course aims at sharing Thailand’s best practices and experiences on moving toward SDG 2030 via Corporate Social Responsibility and Sufficiency Economy Philosophy. The emphasis will be given on an inclusive management in governance, public and private sector. It is our hope that experiences and knowledge shared during the course will help empowering participating countries in coping with the global challenges and will be part of Thailand’s contribution to the global effort in achieving relevant Sustainable Development Goal (SDG) ภาพการจัดหลักสูตร “Moving toward SDG 2030 via Corporate Social Responsibility and Sufficiency Economy Philosophy”