The Colombo Plan:

Colombo Plan is the first Inter-Governmental Organization in Asia and Pacific region, established on 1 July 1951 as a commonwealth initiative which has now completed 65 years of service to the member countries. Its original objectives have been to assist the socio-economic and infrastructure development of the member countries, who were devastated by years of war and destruction. In the initial years, Colombo Plan concentrated on infrastructure building such as roads, railways, airports, irrigation dams, universities, and industries, while also assisting the countries in their capacity building through long term scholarships, training programmes etc.

Brief History of the Colombo Plan

The Colombo Plan Secretariat was established in 1951 with 7 founding member countries based on the discussions at the Commonwealth Foreign Ministers Conference held in Colombo in 1950.

It has grown from the founding group of seven Commonwealth nations - Australia, Britain, Canada, Ceylon, India, New Zealand and Pakistan - into an international organisation of 27 member countries, including developed and developing non-commonwealth countries in the Asia Pacific region.

Current Colombo Plan member countries are Afghanistan, Australia, Bangladesh, Bhutan, Brunei, Fiji, India, Indonesia, Iran, Japan, Republic of Korea, Lao PDR, Malaysia, Maldives, Myanmar, Nepal, New Zealand, Pakistan, Papua New Guinea, Philippines, Singapore, Sri Lanka, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, Thailand, United States of America and Vietnam.

The training programmes titled under the Colombo plan's Technical Cooperation Scheme (TCS-Colombo Plan) is part of the pledge by the Government of India in the last Consultative Committee Meeting (CCM) held in Fiji in 2016.
